

Corporate Timeline

- 1981 Company founded
First software package introduced: Logos[®] Public Administration software including the general ledger and accounts payable modules
- 1983 Became Business Partner with IBM[®] and provided software solutions for the System 38, AS/400[®], and later the iSeries 400 server
- 1985 Public Sector software for local governments became New World Systems only business
- 1984 Second software package introduced: Aegis[®] Public Safety
- 1989 Customers in 15 states throughout the U.S
- 1992 First Message Switch developed for New World's Hermes[™] Mobile Computing software – fastest growing product line
- 1997 Developed Aegis Public Safety software on the Windows[®] NT/2000 platform
- 1998 Formed separate Aegis & Logos operating divisions to focus on key markets
- 2000 500+ Customers/1200 agencies represented from nearly 50 states and several Customers outside of the United States
Sell, install and maintain over 200 public sector software modules
Employ approximately 200 people
- 2001 Commemorated 20 years in business
Microsoft[®] Certified Partner
Developed Aegis Handheld Mobile to meet current public safety needs
Developed Aegis Regional Data Sharing software, allowing agencies to share information
Re-designed Windows 2000 Aegis/MSP public safety software
- 2002 Developed Logos/MSP on the Windows 2000 platform
Employ approximately 260 people
Developed a stable Aegis Field Reporting solution to keep officers in the field
Developed Aegis AVL to increase safety for officers in the field
- 2003 Developed a full suite of browser-based Logos.NET[™] on the Microsoft .Net[®] platform for local government, creating and anytime-anywhere eGov solution
Implemented first Wireless E911 Phase II solution at the Downey, CA Police Department

New World Systems[®]
The Public Sector Software Company

- 2005 Developed Aegis Justice Link (Justice Information Sharing) using Global Justice XML
600 active customers/1,200 agencies
Employ approximately 300 people
- 2006 Celebration of 25 years dedicated to public sector software
Employ 325+ people